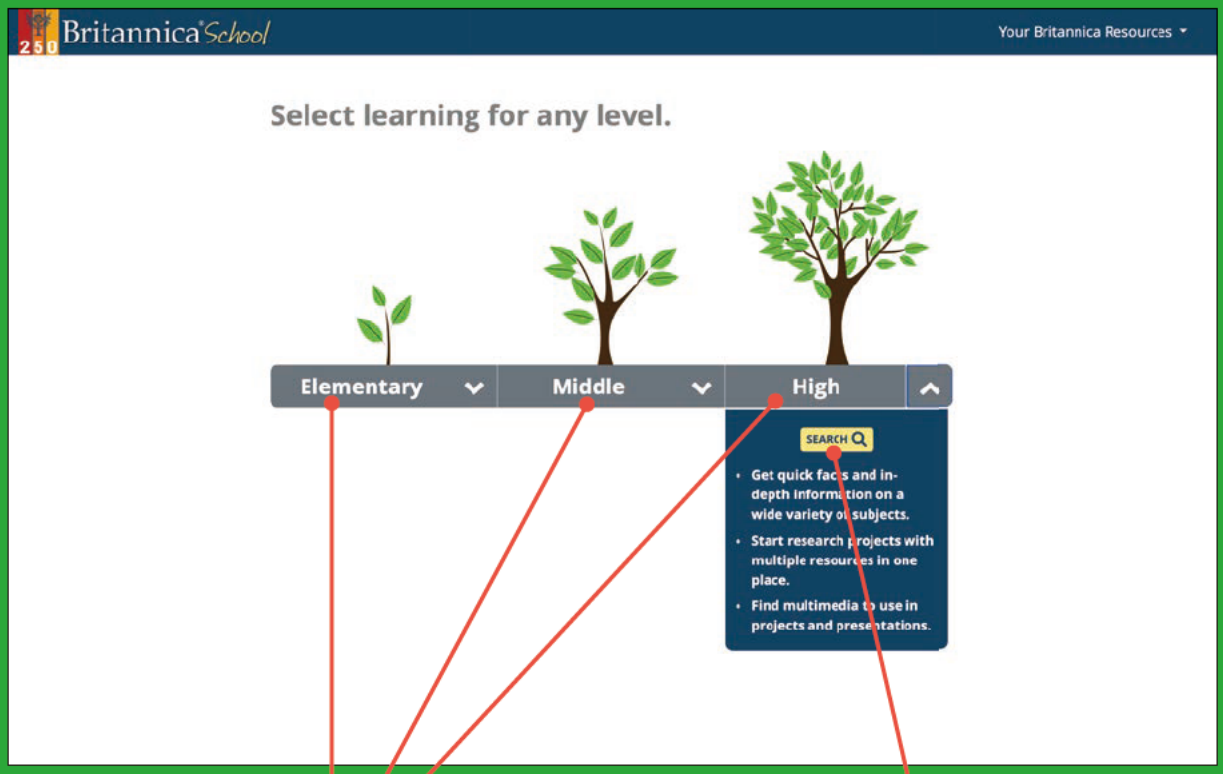
Britannica® School

https://school.eb.com/

Britannica School offers three user-friendly interfaces with age-appropriate contents — Elementary, Middle, and High. You can choose a learning level from the home page for all students.



Three learning levels

Three user-friendly interfaces — Elementary, Middle, and High — are available, and each learning level has an age-appropriate encyclopedia.

- Elementary: for elementary school students
- Middle: for middle school students
- High: for high school students

Search

You can start a search here without going to the top page of High/Middle/Elementary.

Britannica School for Elementary

Britannica School offers encyclopedias and other learning supplemental materials for students of all levels. The Elementary School level is designed for elementary school students.

TOP PAGE

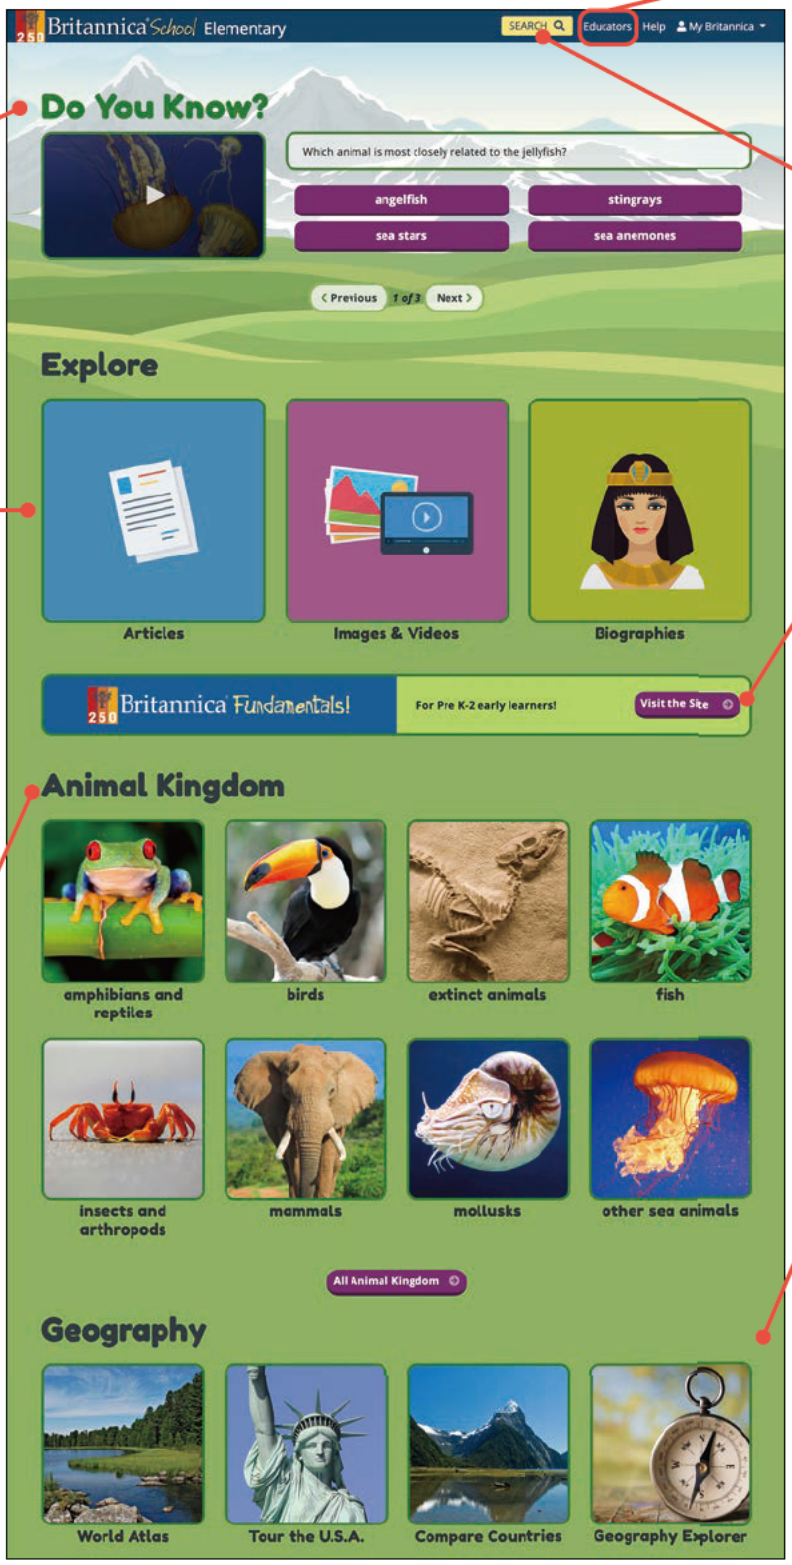
Name the Image What does it Mean? Do you know?
A variety of home page activities stimulates your curiosity and learning.

Articles
Browse articles categorized by subject. You can learn more about interesting subjects from animals to technology.

Images & Videos
Browse images and videos categorized by subject.

Biographies
Browse alphabetical biographies.

Animal Kingdom
Explore animals by group, by habitat, or by name. Click on an image to see animals that belong to the same group or live in same habitat.



Educators
A variety of features and tools for educators.

Search
Type in a word or phrase and click the Search icon. Autocomplete helps you find information you are looking for.

Britannica Fundamentals!
An interactive learning experience for students in Pre K through 2nd grade. This section reinforces language, geography, mathmatics and literacy skills while building digital literacy.

World Atlas
Enter the name of a country and find a map for that area, country profile, and more.

Tour the U.S.A.
Explore maps and states in the U.S.A. Double-click on any state on the map, or find a state using the search box.

Compare Countries
Pick up any two countries from drop-down boxes to compare their general information and important facts.

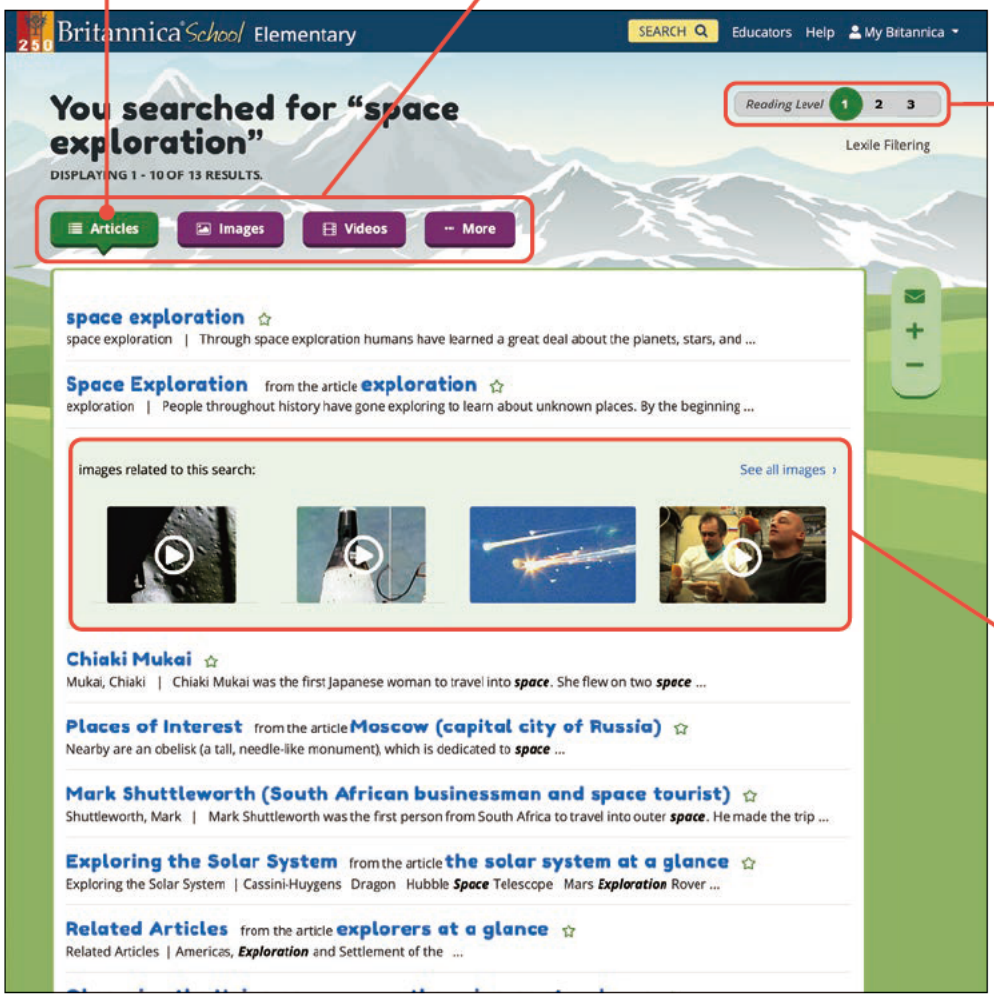
Geography Explorer
Learn about geography such as continents and oceans through simple games.

SEARCH RESULTS PAGE

Britannica School' s consolidated search makes it easy to find the content you need. You can choose from a variety of content types, including encyclopedia articles, images, videos, dictionary, magazines, and Web's Best Sites. After searching for any word or phrase, select any content type filter in the top column of the search results page to see what type of contents are available.

Articles
Choose an article to start your quest for knowledge.

Content Type
You can choose from a variety of content types, including encyclopedia articles, images, videos, dictionary, magazines, and Web's Best Sites.



Reading Level
You can see search results at different reading levels by clicking the tabs. Reading levels are defined as:
Level 1
For elementary school students.
Level 2
For middle school students.
Level 3
For high school students.

Multimedia
Enjoy thousands of images, videos, and animations. To see a larger image or to play a video, click on the thumbnail.

For more efficient search experiences

"Autocomplete" helps you find information you are looking for. It suggests possible terms as you type in a few letters into the search box. Once you find the word or phrase you are searching for, you can simply select it. It allows you to search more efficiently through Britannica School.

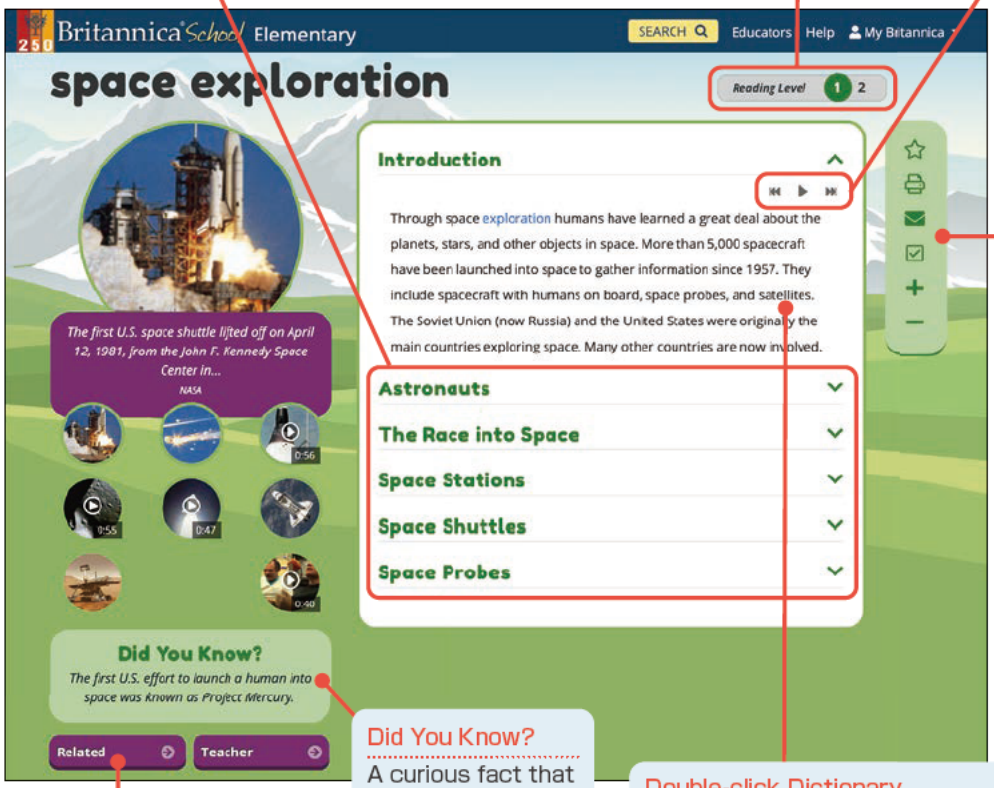
ARTICLE PAGE

An article page contains not only article text but also images, videos, links to related articles, and so on.

Table of Contents
Long articles are divided into separate sections.

Reading Level
You can jump to different reading levels within the article.

Read Aloud
Click on the play button to listen to the text-to-speech audio of the article content.



Favorite
Any article, image, or video from Britannica School can be flagged as a favorite for easy access. To add an item to your list of favorites, simply click the star icon. Please note that you must be logged in to add an item to your favorites.

Print
Click on the Print icon to print the article.

Email
Click on the Email icon to send the link to the article to another person.

Cite
The citation tool makes it easy to cite Britannica School' s content in your papers and projects. When viewing an article or image, simply click the Cite icon, select your style, and the tool will format the required information for you.

Font Up / Font Down
Click on this icon to increase or decrease font size.

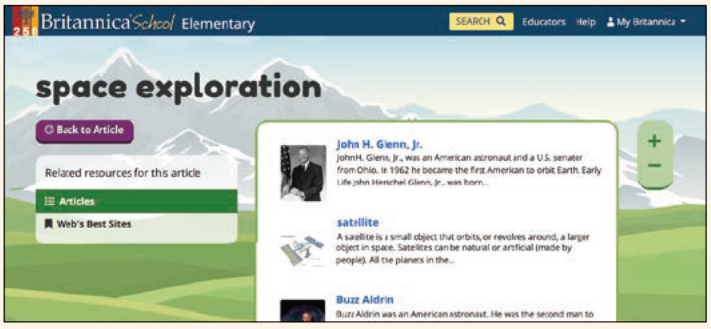
Related
Click the related button to check out people, places, and things that are related to the article.

Did You Know?
A curious fact that could catch your attention.

Double-click Dictionary
Double-click any word for a quick definition. To see additional information, just click the "see full definition" link.

Related Topics

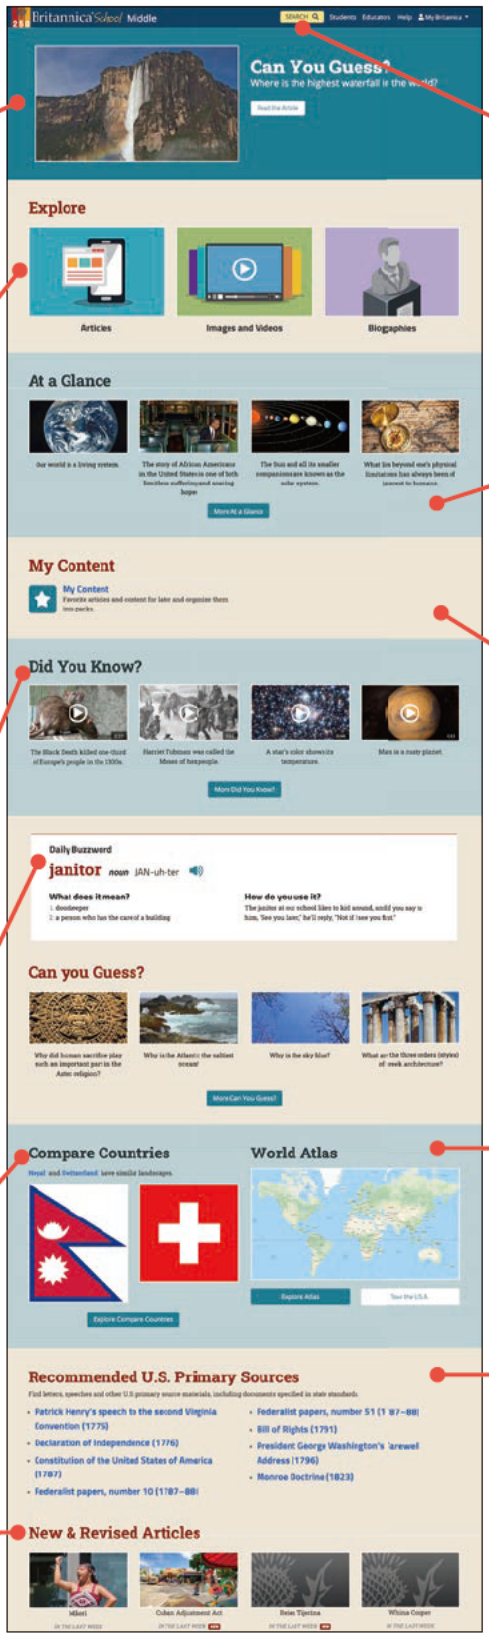
To read about people, places, and things that are related to an article, click on the related button. From there, select from a variety of content that is related in some way to the article you have been reading.



Britannica School for Middle

Britannica School offers encyclopedias and other learning supplemental materials for students of all levels. The Middle School level is designed for middle school students.

TOP PAGE



Can You Guess?
An engaging question encouraging you to dive into Britannica content.
This question changes on a regular basis.

Articles
Browse articles categorized by subject.

Images & Videos
Browse images and videos categorized by subject.

Biographies
Learn more about interesting people from the past to present. Choose at least one filter from the fields (era, nationality, subjects, and gender).

Did You Know?
A curious fact that could catch your attention.

Daily Buzzword
Learn English words randomly every day.

Compare Countries
Pick up any two countries from drop-down boxes to compare their general information and statistics.

New & Revised Articles
Find new and updated articles.

Search
Type in a word or phrase and click the Search icon. Autocomplete helps you find information you are looking for.

At a Glance
High interest topics that begin with introductions and offer links to articles, media and primary source content.

My Content
To see all the content you have marked as a favorite (articles, images, videos, etc.), log in at "My Britannica" and access your "My Content" page by clicking on your linked username in the navigation at the top of the page.

World Atlas
Enter the name of a country and find a map for that area, country profile, and more.

Recommended U.S. Primary Sources
Access to more than 24,000 letters, speeches and other primary source documents related to United States history.

SEARCH RESULTS PAGE

Britannica School' s consolidated search makes it easy to find the content you need. You can choose from a variety of content types, including encyclopedia articles, images, videos, dictionary, magazines, and Web's Best Sites. After searching for any word or phrase, select any content type filter in the top column of the search results page to see what type of contents are available.

Reading Level

You can see search results at different reading levels by clicking the tabs. Reading levels are defined as:

Level 1
For elementary school students

Level 2
For middle school students

Level 3
For high school students.

Multimedia

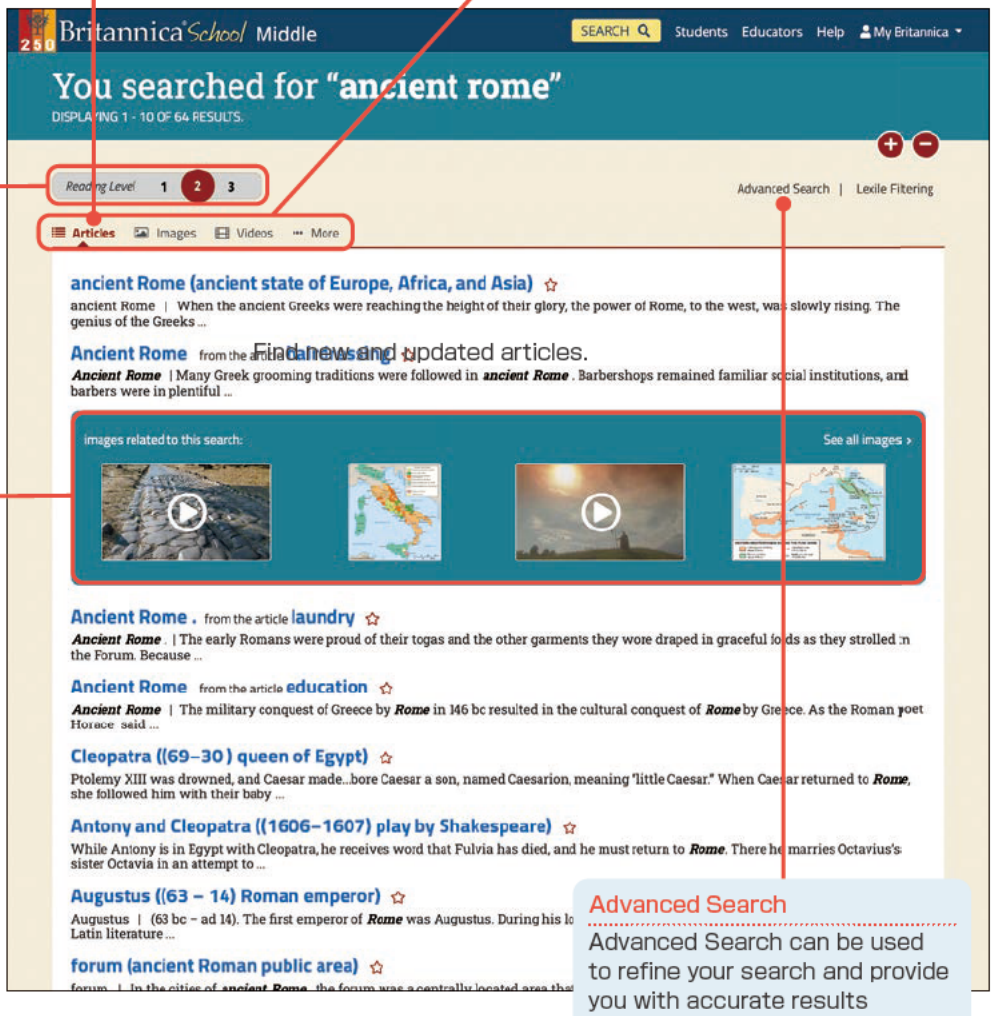
Enjoy thousands of images, videos, and animations. To see a larger image or to play a video, click on the thumbnail.

Articles

Choose an article to start your quest for knowledge.

Content Type

You can choose from a variety of content types, including encyclopedia articles, images, videos, dictionary, magazines, Web's Best Sites, Primary Sources & E-Books, and Year in Review.



Advanced Search

Advanced Search can be used to refine your search and provide you with accurate results that are more relevant to your search.

For more efficient search experiences

"Autocomplete" helps you find information you are looking for. It suggests possible terms as you type in a few letters into the search box. Once you find the word or phrase you are searching for, you can simply select it. It allows you to search more efficiently through Britannica School.

ARTICLE PAGE

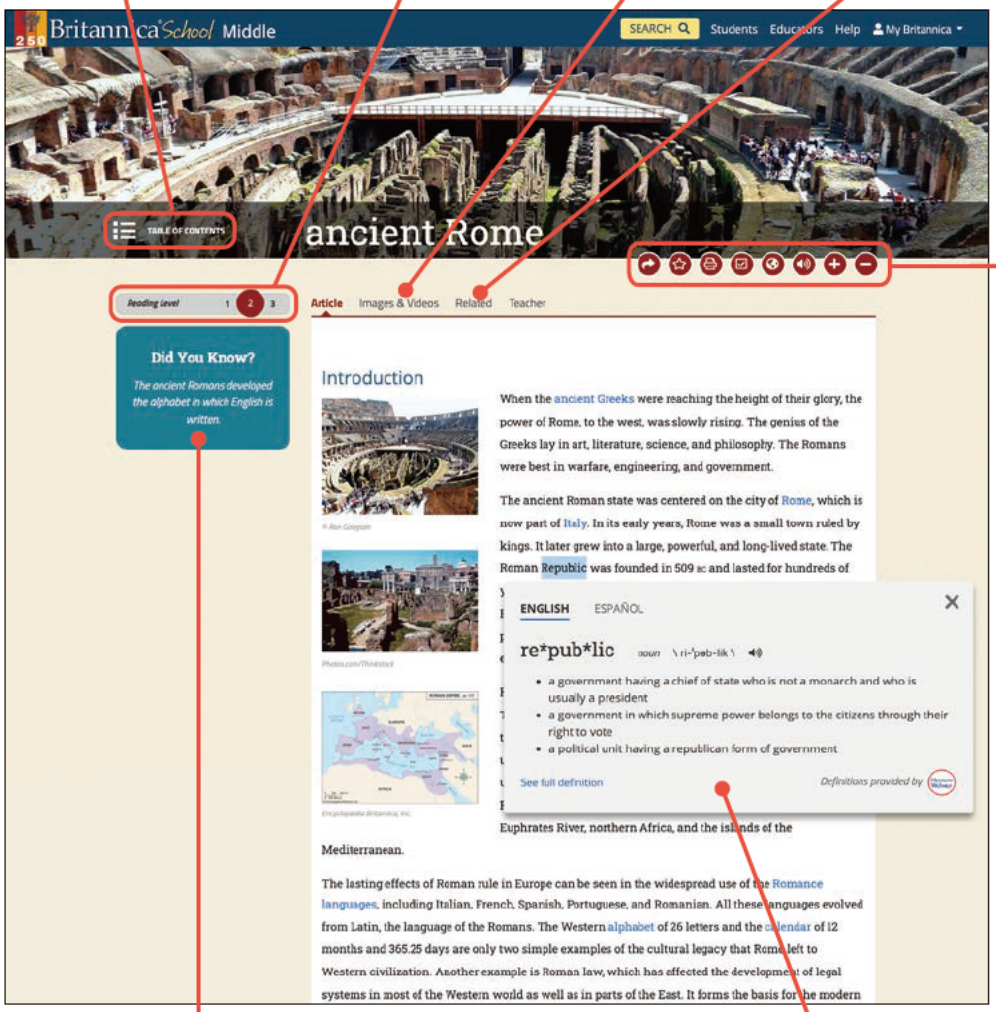
An article page contains not only article text but also images, videos, links to related articles, and so on.

Table of Contents
Long articles are divided into separate sections.

Reading Level
You can jump to different reading levels within the article.

Images & Videos
Find a list of the images and videos in this article.

Related
Click the related tab to check out people, places, and things that are related to the article.



Favorite
Any articles, images, or videos from Britannica School can be flagged as a favorite for easy access. To add an item to your list of favorites, simply click the star icon. Please note that you must be logged in to add an item to your favorites.

Print
Print the current view of the page.

Cite
The citation tool makes it easy to cite Britannica School' s content in your papers and projects. Select your style, and the tool will format the required information for you.

Translate
Translate the article with Google Translation.

Listen
Listen to the text-to-speech audio of the article content. Please note that this feature does not work once the article is translated.

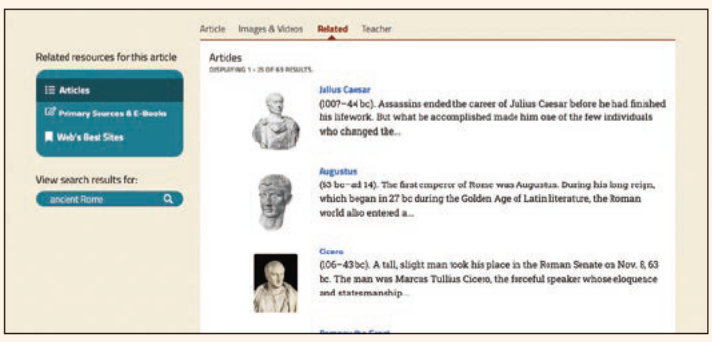
Font Up / Font Down
Click on this icon to increase or decrease font size.

Did You Know?
A curious fact that could catch your attention.

Double-click Dictionary
Double-click any word for a quick definition. To see additional information, click the "see full definition" link.

Related Topics

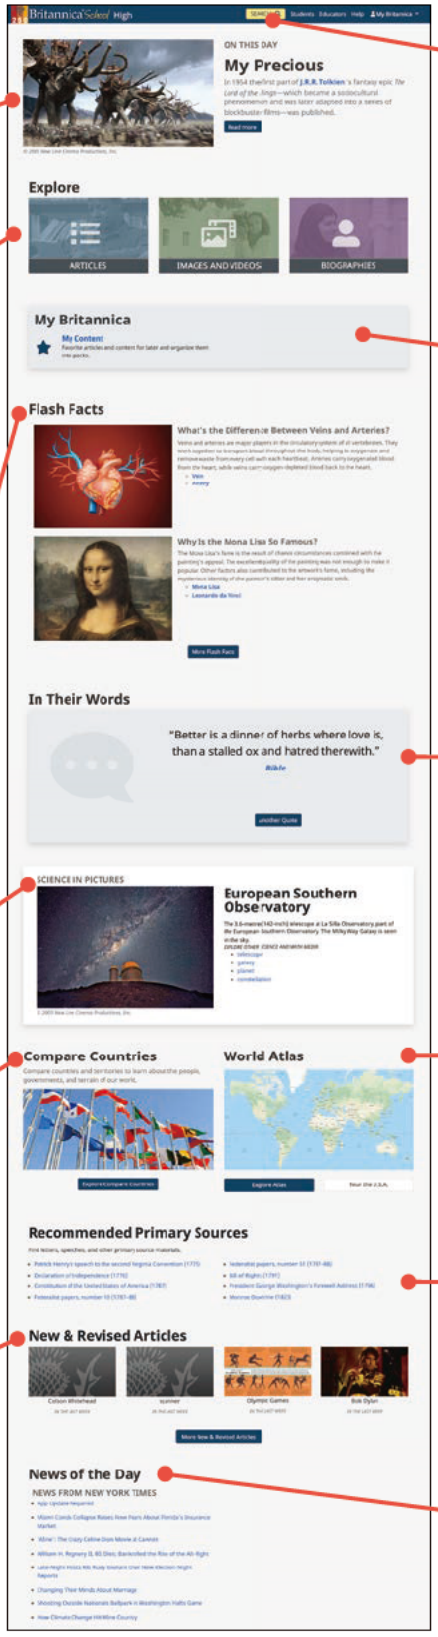
To read about people, places, and things that are related to an article, click on the related tab. From there, select from a variety of content that is related in some way to the article you have been reading.



Britannica School for High

Britannica School offers encyclopedias and other learning supplemental materials for students of all levels. The High School level is designed for high school students.

TOP PAGE



On This Day
A historical event that occured on this day is featured each day.

Article
Browse articles categorized by subject.

Images & Videos
Browse images and videos categorized by subject.

Biographies
Learn more about interesting people from the past to present. Choose at least one filter from the fields (era, nationality, subjects, and gender).

Flash Facts
Quick information about popular topics of interest.

SCIENCE IN PICTURES
Highlight science topics through images.

Compare Countries
Pick up any two countries from drop-down boxes to compare their general information and statistics.

New & Revised Articles
Find new and updated articles.

Search
Type in a word or phrase and click the Search icon. Autocomplete helps you find information you are looking for.

My Britannica
To see all the content you have marked as a favorite (articles, images, videos, etc.), log in at "My Britannica" and access your "My Content" page by clicking on your linked username in the navigation at the top of the page.

In Their Words
A selection of famous quotes that can be used as discussion starters, or a quick write prompt.

World Atlas
Enter the name of a country and find a map for that area, country profile, and more.

Recommended Primary Sources
Access to more than 24,000 letters, speeches and other primary source documents related to United States history.

News by New York Times
Bring current events to the classroom with articles from New York Times.

SEARCH RESULTS PAGE

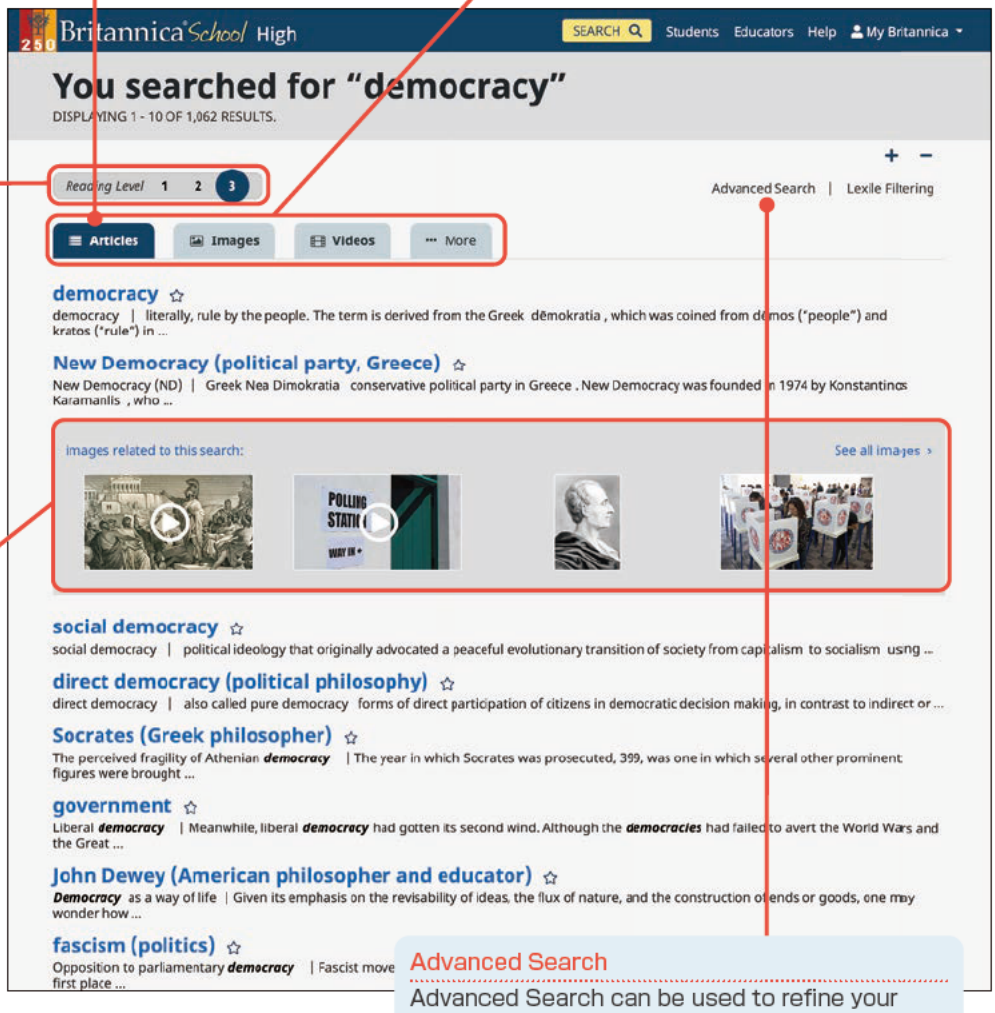
Britannica School' s consolidated search makes it easy to find the content you need. You can choose from a variety of content types, including encyclopedia articles, images, videos, dictionary, magazines, and Web's Best Sites. After searching for any word or phrase, select any content type filter in the top column of the search results page to see what type of contents are available.

Articles
Choose an article to start your quest for knowledge.

Content Type
You can choose from a variety of content types, including encyclopedia articles, images, videos, dictionary, magazines, Web's Best Sites, Primary Sources & E-Books, and Year in Review.

Reading Level
You can see search results at different reading levels by clicking the tabs. Reading levels are defined as:
Level 1
For elementary school students
Level 2
For middle school students
Level 3
For high school students.

Multimedia
Enjoy thousands of images, videos, and animations. To see a larger image or to play a video, click on the thumbnail.



Advanced Search
Advanced Search can be used to refine your search and provide you with accurate results that are more relevant to your search.

For more efficient search experiences

"Autocomplete" helps you find information you are looking for. It suggests possible terms as you type in a few letters into the search box. Once you find the word or phrase you are searching for, you can simply select it. It allows you to search more efficiently through Britannica School.

ARTICLE PAGE

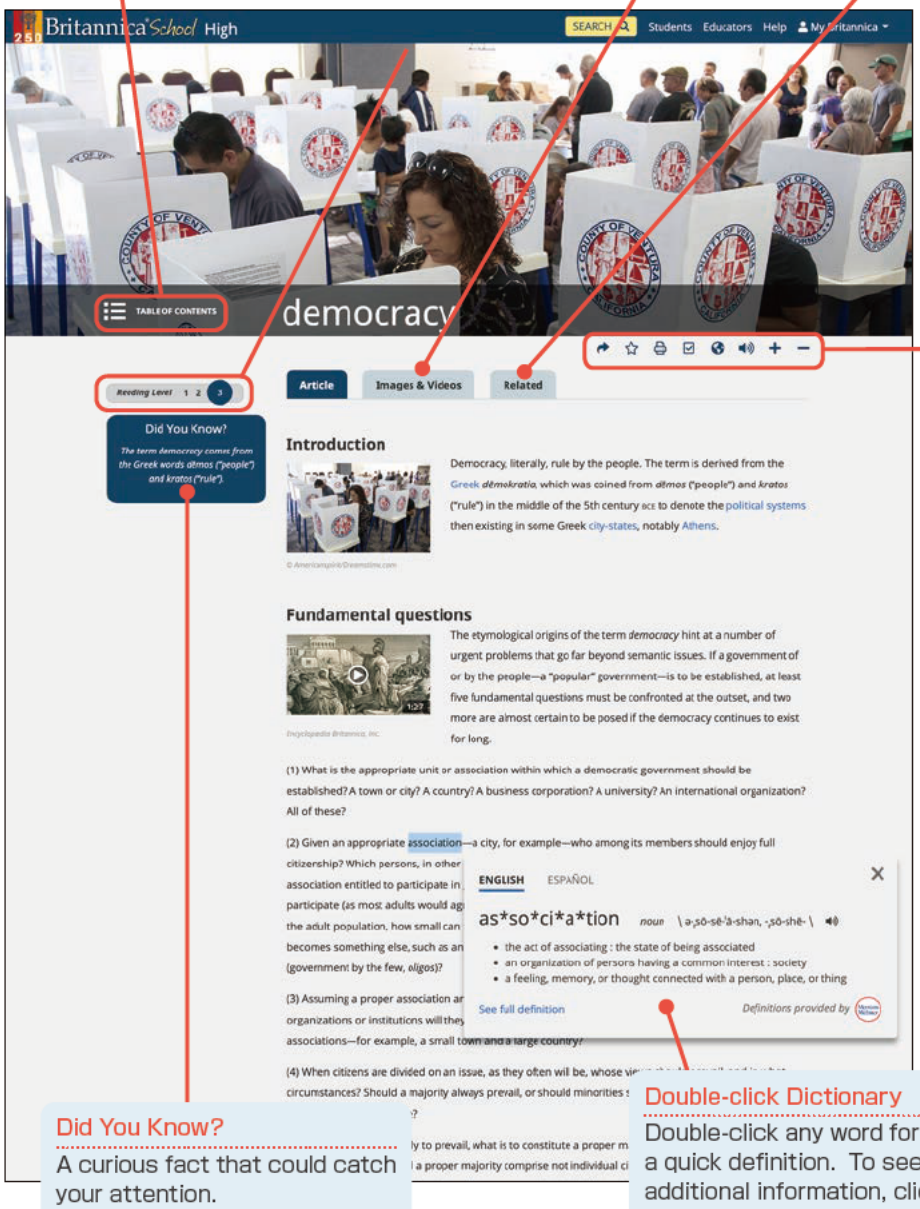
An article page contains not only article text but also images, videos, links to related articles, and so on.

Table of Contents
Long articles are divided into separate sections.

Reading Level
You can jump to different reading levels within the article.

Images & Videos
Find a list of the images and videos in this article.

Related
Click the related tab to check out people, places, and things that are related to the article.



Did You Know?
A curious fact that could catch your attention.

Double-click Dictionary
Double-click any word for a quick definition. To see additional information, click the "see full definition" link.

Favorite
Any articles, images, or videos from Britannica School can be flagged as a favorite for easy access. To add an item to your list of favorites, simply click the star icon. Please note that you must be logged in to add an item to your favorites.

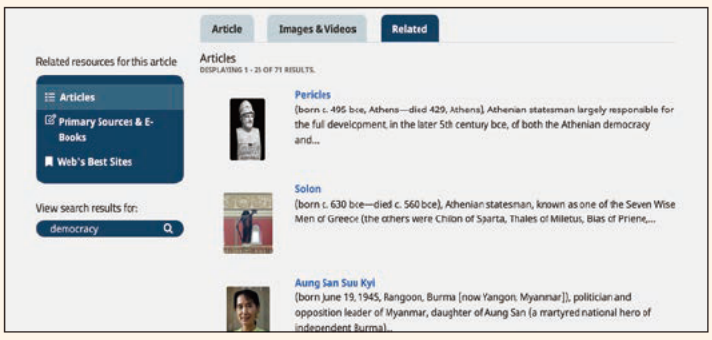
Print
Print the current view of the page.

Cite
The citation tool makes it easy to cite Britannica School' s content in your papers and projects. Select your style, and the tool will format the required information for you.

Translate
Translate the article with Google Translation.

Listen
Listen to the text-to-speech audio of the article content. Please note that this feature does not work once the article is translated.

Font Up / Font Down
Click on this icon to increase or decrease font size.

Related Topics


To read about people, places, and things that are related to an article, click on the related tab. From there, select from a variety of content that is related in some way to the article you have been reading.